Doncaster Football Club was founded in the early 1900's and has a proud and rich history, which includes winning the premiership in 2015.

In its first entry in Division 1 the Club made Finals - Only the 2nd team in 20 years to achieve this.

The team followed up with another senior finals appearance in 2017

A club that currently fields senior and reserves teams and has a close working relationship with Doncaster Junior Football Club.

The club is an integral part of the community and a foundation member of the professionally operated Eastern Football & Netball League.

The Sharks provides an environment attractive to members, sponsors, players, families and friends.

The players are provided with the opportunity to play their best football to achieve the ultimate reward for the player and club – a Premiership.
